International Service Award

The International Service Award was created by the Club in 2004 to recognize a local individual who has provided humanitarian relief or worked to promote world understanding and peace. Previous recipients are Reverend Stan Fedesyn, Thomas Vreeland, and John Snyder. This award is one of four annual awards presented by the Club, one each in the four avenues of service in which Rotary operates - community service, club service, vocational service, and international service. It includes a $1,000 gift to The Rotary Foundation in the name of the honoree.
